Summary

This bill removes the expiration date of the food and beverage tax imposed by the city of Sartell. The tax was originally authorized in 2019 by special law, and required the tax to expire five years after it is first imposed.

This bill also amends the referendum requirement to allow the referendum to be held at a general or special election as determined by a resolution adopted by the city's governing board. Originally, the special law required the referendum to be held on or before November 3, 2020.
